Evolve White City 2045

The Town's Official Community Plan and Zoning Bylaw are being renewed, and we want your help!

Good planning is the product of good public consultation, we need your help to ensure the new Official Community Plan and Zoning Bylaw represent the collective vision of the community.

The Town of White City wants to ensure stakeholders like you and your family have a say on the future of the community. The Town has completed an engagement plan that includes communication and engagement strategies for the public to take part in the planning process.

Visit engage.whitcity.ca/ocp for more information.
